UCMC Equipment Policy

The use of University of Cincinnati Mountaineering Club (UCMC) equipment is a privilege

1. Guidelines and Rules

1. The Gear Manager has discretion on all matters in the Gear Cave.
2. All members must complete all waivers, be a member, and pay gear fees to have access to equipment.
3. You may only check out equipment for yourself.
4. All equipment will be checked out for one week unless prior arrangements are made.
5. The Gear Cave will be open before and after each meeting, all equipment is first come first serve.
6. Equipment must be returned before the meeting and checked out after the meeting by the person using it. Equipment must be returned in an acceptable clean, dry and working condition. Penalties may be assessed.
7. You cannot allow those that have not completed the waivers or paid gear fees to use UCMC equipment. Penalties WILL be assessed.

2. Personal Responsibility

1. I have a personal responsibility to treat all UCMC equipment as if it were my own and I hereby acknowledge that. _____ Initial Here
2. I have a personal responsibility to ensure that I know how to use the equipment I borrow safely and responsibly prior to checking it out and I hereby acknowledges that. _____ Initial Here
3. I have a personal responsibility to ensure that any equipment I borrow is in safe working order prior to checking it out and I hereby acknowledges that. _____ Initial Here
4. No one else can be held accountable for a failure of my personal responsibility or my improper use of UCMC equipment and I hereby acknowledge that. _____ Initial Here

3. Equipment Restrictions

1. General Restriction – The UCMC Gear Manager reserves the right to restrict equipment to all members for the purpose of official club trips which take priority, and planning.
2. Policy Restriction – UCMC has guidelines that restrict UCMC member access to specific items. These guidelines are defined by, but not limited to, the following: Rock Climbing, White Water, and Ice Climbing policies. The UCMC executive board reserves the right to add to or change these policies at any time.

4. Penalties

Penalties will be assessed on a case by case basis at the discretion of the Gear Manager. Penalties will be assessed for the following reasons but not limited to, equipment is returned late, equipment is returned in an unacceptable condition, or equipment is lost, broken or not returned. Penalties will follow the guidelines below.

1. Fines – A minimum fine of $5 per week up to a maximum fine of the retail replacement value of the equipment borrowed.
2. Deposits – A deposit for equipment up to $100 can be required for members who break equipment policy guidelines.
3. Suspension – Suspension of equipment privileges and/or participation in UCMC activities can be imposed on members who break equipment policy guidelines. This suspension will have a specified time period and can be appealed to the UCMC executive board.

Nonpayment of penalties and/or unreturned equipment without notification to the Gear Manager for more than 2 weeks will prevent you from participating in UCMC activities and your information will be given to the Registrars and Bursars office which will result in a service block for your transcripts, grades, and class registration. If unreturned equipment is still not returned UCPD will be informed and the case will be treated as theft and a Student Code of Conduct violation will be filed.

By signing this document, I agree to all terms of the equipment policy and will adhere to all guideline. I also acknowledge that I have read and understand the equipment policy and cannot claim ignorance.
